

UNOFFICIAL SUMMARY OF THE GOLF ADVISORY BOARD
December 2, 2009 AT 3:30 PM
JOE BROWN ROOM - PRO SHOP
NEW SMYRNA GOLF CLUB

Marilyn M. Lindley, Chairperson
Leo Kernica, Secretary
Morley Pearce

Ed Vaissiere
Tom Walters
John Jacobs

Roll was called, absent members include Marilyn Lindley, Mo Pearce and Leo Kernica, no quorum was met.

Mr. Vaissiere welcomed the two new members to the board, Tom Walters and John Jacobs.

Mr. Pearce is not present to give the financial report.

Mr. Wintz gave his report: The restaurant is up and running and doing very well.

The new golf carts have arrived. New merchandise is now in the pro shop.

The monthly scramble and the couples tournaments have been a success; golf followed by lunch in the restaurant.

John Yancey has put down the rye grass and it is flourishing.

More persons are coming down, play has picked up.

The Indian River Open is Feb. 5, 6, and 7th.

This year in the IRO pro am, the format has changed, you are able to make up your own team of three and we will put a pro with you or if you have a complete team, that would be acceptable as well.

Gary has distributed Indian River Open applications to other courses to attract entrants for the weekend event.

The entrants are allowed to play from their desired tees.

Mr. Vaissiere brought up that the tournament is limited to low handicaps, which kept entries down. Mr. Wintz has changed those rules to accommodate a larger field.

Mr. Wintz announced the Marvin Harvey Tournament will be May 1 & 2nd.

Brochures and packets with information and discount coupons have been distributed throughout the city; the beachside condominiums, mainland offices and local area offices including the chamber and visitor center.

Tom Walters brought up the condition of the restrooms on the course, they need to be upgraded and he feels a mirror and a bit of decoration would be an improvement.

Louis Charland commented for the Senior Men's Golf Association regarding the greens fee tee times, he wants the association to have a few more earlier tee times to get the group off and running.

Mr. Wintz wants to implement a system where players go off the front & back in the morning to accommodate more golfers on the golf course.

The next regular monthly Golf Advisory Board meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, January 27, 2010 in the Joe Brown room in the rear of the pro shop at 3:30 PM.
