Judy Reiker was elected to represent Zone 1, Northeastern New Smyrna Beach on the City Commission in November 2009 and currently serves as the Vice Mayor. She also represents the City Commission as a member of the New Smyrna Beach Police Pension Board.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, after graduating from high school, Judy moved to Harrisburg, PA and began her career in title insurance. A graduate of Penn State University, majoring in Accounting, Judy earned an MBA from Georgia State University in Atlanta, GA in 1992. Judy and husband Guy Mariande settled in New Smyrna Beach in 2001 where she established a local Fidelity National Title Office in 2002.

Judy is very active in the community. Prior to her election to the Commission, she served as a member of the Golf Advisory Board. She also holds the following positions: Past President and Board Member of the New Smyrna Beach Rotary Club; Religious Education Coordinator of Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church; Member and past Board Member of the SE Volusia Chamber of Commerce; Member of the New Smyrna Beach Board of Realtors.

In her spare time, Judy enjoys spending time with others and excels at organizing events such as Red Cross functions as Blood Drives and Relay for Life, and other functions such as golf outings, etc. Judy prides herself as being a consensus building and goal oriented, and is confident that her tenure on the City Com-mission will improve the overall performance of the City.
